COURSE TITLE:	DISABILITY AWARENESS TRAINING - MYTH AND REALITY
COURSE CODE:	479727 A.M. Session 479728 P.M. Session
VENDOR:	MD State Department of Education 200 W Baltimore Street Baltimore, MD 21201
LOCATION:	Employee Development Center, Building 2189
DATE:	18 October 1999 0900-1130 A.M. Session 1300-1530 P.M. Session (PLEASE SELECT ONE SESSION)
DESCRIPTION:	The American Disabilities Act requires employers to make reasonable accommodations for a qualified individual with a known physical or mental disability. We will look at where we are now, and where we need to go in the future to ensure "equal access for all". Our goal is to gather together those who are affected by or have a professional interest in the Americans Disabilities Act. During this workshop participants will actually experience disability conditions and how they will relate to them specifically. The following topics will be covered: -Disability Etiquette -Common Sense Approach to Accommodations
NOMINATIONS:	Nominations must be submitted through use of the Initial Training Request Form, NDW-NAWCAD 12410/28. The completed form, with appropriate signatures, is given to the activity training contact. The training contact forwards the request to the Employee Development Division via the Training Information System (TIPS).
COST:	NO COST
