

ENVIRONMENTAL, HEALTH AND SAFETY

JOSE LENG, COORDINATOR 757-4126

UPDATED: 05 NOVEMBER 1999

HAZARDOUS WASTE FOR HANDLERS (INITIAL)

HAZARDOUS WASTE FOR HANDLERS (REFRESHER)

SPILL RESPONSE/1st RESPONDER/OPERATIONS LEVEL (INITIAL)

SPILL RESPONSE/1st RESPONDER/OPERATIONS LEVEL (REFRESHER)

COURSE TITLE:	HAZARDOUS WASTE FOR HANDLERS (INITIAL)
VENDOR:	HazTrain, Inc P.O. Box 2206 La Plata, MD 20646
LOCATION:	Occupational Safety & Health Department, Building #310, Room 106
COURSE CODE: 482014	DATE: 06 December 1999
TIME:	8:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
DESCRIPTION:	Overview of cleanup operations required by a governmental body involving hazardous substances that are conducted at uncontrolled hazardous waste sites.
OBJECTIVE:	At the completion of this course, participants should be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Know the names of personnel and alternates responsible for site safety and health. 2. Understand the work practices by which the employee can minimize risks from hazards. 3. Be familiar with the safe use of engineering controls and equipment on the site. 4. Be familiar with the EPA regulations and DOD/Navy policies. 5. Basis standard applicable to generators and new standards for universal wastes. 6. Basic planning requirements for emergency situations.
AUDIENCE:	Mandatory for all personnel providing an overview of regulations, procedures, spill response, and waste minimization. REF: 29 CFR 1910.120
LENGTH:	1 Day
COST:	There is no cost except the salary of student. Maximum of 25 students per training session.

COURSE TITLE:	HAZARDOUS WASTE FOR HANDLERS (REFRESHER)
VENDOR:	HazTrain, Inc P.O. Box 2206 La Plata, MD 20646
LOCATION:	Occupational Safety & Health Department, Building #310, Room 106
COURSE CODE: 482012	DATE: 08 December 1999
TIME:	0900-1100
DESCRIPTION:	Overview of cleanup operations required by a governmental body involving hazardous substances that are conducted at uncontrolled hazardous waste sites.
OBJECTIVE:	At the completion of this course, participants should be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Identify waste. 2. Understand the changing land disposal restrictions. 3. Understand the requirements for waste storage, shipment, and minimization. 4. The basic planning requirements for emergency situations and the new standard for emergency situations and the new standard for universal wastes.
AUDIENCE:	Mandatory for all personnel providing an overview of regulations, procedures, spill response, and waste minimization. REF: 29 CFR 1910.120
LENGTH:	2 Hours
COST:	There is no cost except the salary of student. Maximum of 25 students per training session.

COURSE TITLE:	SPILL RESPONSE/1st RESPONDER/OPERATIONS LEVEL (INITIAL)
VENDOR:	HazTrain, Inc P.O. Box 2206 La Plata, MD 20646
LOCATION:	Occupational Safety & Health Department, Building #310, Room 106
COURSE CODE: 482013	DATE: 07 December 1999
TIME:	0730-1600
DESCRIPTION:	Overview for employees who may witness or discover a hazardous Substance release, in accordance with local requirements for initiating an emergency response sequence.
OBJECTIVE:	At the completion of this course, participants should be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Demonstrate how to select and use proper personal protection equipment. 2. Demonstrate how to perform basic control and/or confinement operations. 3. Implement basic decontamination procedures. 4. Understand the basic hazardous materials terms. 5. Use and interpret informational resources.
AUDIENCE:	Mandatory for all employees who respond to releases of hazardous substances.
LENGTH:	1 Day
COST:	There is no cost except the salary of student. Maximum of 25 students per training session.

COURSE TITLE:	SPILL RESPONSE/1st RESPONDER/OPERATIONS LEVEL (REFRESHER)
VENDOR:	HazTrain, Inc P.O. Box 2206 La Plata, MD 20646
LOCATION:	Occupational Safety & Health Department, Building #310, Room 106
COURSE CODE: 482011	DATE: 08 December 1999
TIME:	1230-1430
DESCRIPTION:	Overview for employees who may witness or discover a hazardous Substance release, in accordance with local requirements for initiating an emergency response sequence.
OBJECTIVE:	At the completion of this course, participants should be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Demonstrate how to select and use proper personal protection equipment. 2. Demonstrate how to perform basic control and/or confinement operations. 3. Implement basic decontamination procedures. 4. Understand the basic hazardous materials terms. 5. Use and interpret informational resources.
AUDIENCE:	Mandatory for all employees who respond to releases of hazardous substances.
LENGTH:	2 Hours
COST:	There is no cost except the salary of student. Maximum of 25 students per training session.

